

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Dec. 1, 2010

DEC to announce results of North Slope Spills Analysis

Anchorage, Alaska – Alaska Department of Environmental Conservation Spill Prevention and Response Division Director Larry Dietrick will hold a news conference Thursday to announce the results of the North Slope Spills Analysis. He will be joined by Taku Engineering Principal Engineer Bill Mott, who served on an expert panel that offered recommendations on the spills analysis.

Who: DEC Director of Spill Prevention and Response Larry Dietrick;
Taku Engineering Principal Engineer Bill Mott

What: Results of North Slope Spills Analysis

When: 1:00 pm, Thurs., December 2, 2010

Where: DEC Anchorage office, 555 Cordova Street, 1st floor conference room

A teleconference has been arranged for reporters who cannot attend in person:
1-800-315-6338, access code 5065#.

For more information, contact Larry Dietrick, Director Division of Spill Prevention and Response, (907) 465-5250.

#